MOSES' BEST FLOUR

I Can Recommend this flour to you because I know that the makers are very careful in the preparation of it from the threshing of the wheat to the final bagging and distributing.
I recommend it also because I know what good bread, pie, biscuit and cake it will make. My wife uses it. All the dealers who handle our flour will say this.

license was issued yesterday by the clerk of the superior court to Jesus Gonzales, 21, and Francisco Sismoros, 16, both of Phoenix.

NOTICE WILLIAM SIMPSON—The Red Cross offices in the chamber of commerce have information they wish to convey at once to Will Simpson, in the navy service, now in Phoenix visiting parents. They use this method to reach him.

M. E. REVIVAL—Revival services are now being conducted at the Methodist Episcopal church. The opening services have been very encouraging, showing a spirit of hearty cooperation with the pastor, devotion to the work and consecration in the service. These meetings will be held every evening until further notice.

ROBT. E. LEE REMEMBERED—The local chapter of the U. D. C. celebrated the 113th anniversary of Robert E. Lee's birthday yesterday at the home of Mrs. E. Ganz, their president, on North Central avenue. About 60 guests were present, including six Confederate veterans and the Dixie chapter of the U. D. C. An appropriate and interesting program was rendered and a typical southern dinner was served.

ASKS DISSOLUTION OF COM-PANY—P. E. Lewis, vice president of the Aquila Land and Cattle company, has filed a petition for its dissolution in the superior court, stating that all outstanding stock was sold September 22 to William D. Powell for $40,000.
Attorneys for the petitioning corporation are Richard E. Sloan, C. R. Holton and E. G. Scott.

DIVORCE COMPLAINT—On many occasions, Mr. Porter continues in his complaint, Mrs. Porter has left their two children, Lois, 3 years old, and Arden, 2 years old, alone at their home without anyone to watch over them, and on other occasions, he states, she has kept the older child at home from school to watch the baby while she herself was "on the streets, unoccupied." The defendant concludes his cross complaint by stating that Mrs.
Porter has been guilty of threats against his life on many occasions, and has frequently cursed and used vile language against him. He seeks the custody of their children.

IN PRIVATE PRACTICE NOW—Dr. George S. Martin, in charge of the activities of the public health service in Arizona, has opened an office for private practice in the building occupied by several doctors, at 430 North Central avenue. Dr. Martin's office hours there are from 5 to 6. At the present time Dr. Martin is looking after the interests of all disabled or sick service men in Arizona. He is well known to many Phoenix men, having served in the medical detachment of the 8th Infantry. After leaving that organization he was promoted to the rank of major, at which grade he was discharged from life service last summer.

KANSAS EDITOR HERE—John S. Gilmore and her son, John S.
Gilmore, Jr., of Fredonia, Kansas, arrived in the city yesterday for a several weeks' stay, and plan to go to the coast later. They are stopping at the Hotel Adams. Mr. Gilmore is the editor of the Wilson County Citizen, founded 50 years ago by John S. Gilmore, Sr., pioneer Kansas newspaperman. Since his father's death a number of years ago Mr. Gilmore, in addition to editing the paper, has managed a large farm in Wilson county which

DOUGLAS EDITOR IN CITY—James S. Logie of the Douglas Dispatch was among the republicans attending the republican state central committee. He was unaccompanied on this trip by Major George H. Kelly, one of the best known and most influential of the latter for participation in a meeting of that color.

TO CONTINUE CENSUS AID—So valuable has been the help given the census by the republican committee of the Phoenix chamber of commerce that it was decided by the committee yesterday to continue the work with increased effort until the census has been completed. No one will escape being taken for the census through any lack of energy on the part of the committee and its workers, said members of the committee after the meeting.

HEARING IS POSTPONED—Hearing in the superior court of the case of Frank Williams, charged with a statutory offense, was postponed until next Monday yesterday on motion of the county attorney, who was forced to move by the absence of Mrs.
Jewell Goodspeed Womack, chief witness for the state. Two witnesses were heard before the judge, who ruled in favor of the defense. Miss Gladie Womack, sister-in-law of Mrs. Jewell Womack, and Mrs. M. A.
Womack, her mother-in-law.
